Primer

Out with old-hat silicone primers and in with new-gen facial oils. The Photo Finish Primer Oil preps your skin for makeup and hydrates, creating the softest canvas for foundation, without a trace of grease or synthetic slickness. It's dewy skin in a bottle.

Moisturiser

Hydraluron Moisture Jelly, €24, Indeed Labs @ Boots
Perfect for thirsty skin that goes into breakout-orbit with the mere mention of oil, this fast-absorbing, weightless moisturiser packs an instant hydration punch. Suspended in a reformulated fragrance-free jelly, the complex hyaluronic acid matrix works to lock in moisture leaving skin soft, supple and radiant. Hello, glow.

Oil, gel or cream...whatever your usual vice, get ready to change things up with these nouveau feels.

Blush

Cloud Paint, €28 (set of 2), Glossier

Marketed by the brand as finger painting for grown ups, this sheer, collagen-infused gel blush is more user-friendly gouache than stodgy, retro acrylic. Buildable and damn near impossible to over-apply, dab onto cheeks wherever you please for a fresh, cherubic flush.

Base

Lightweight Serum Foundation, €6.70, The Ordinary at Cloud10beauty.com

On launching, this foundation had a 25,000-person waitlist. 25,000 people. Just let that sink in for a minute. With a 21-shade offering, divided into three tiers of light, medium, and dark, which are then categorised further into pink, red, yellow, and neutral tones, its liquidy consistency gives a natural yet subtly-perfected, saten finish.

Lips

Pop Lip Shadow Cushion, €20, Clinique

Inspired by the expert beauty hack of patting an eyeshadow over a similarly hued lipstick to create the longest-wearing colour payoff, this is your matte lip 2.0. Delivering showstopping, dimensional colour, the super-saturated pigment goes on with a plush, powdery finish. Apply to the centre of lips and blur out for an on-trend, just-kissed lip.
